

DAWN WEISS: has performed numerous concerti with the Oregon Symphony, and with the Vancouver Symphony, Pasadena Symphony, Los Angeles Doctors Symphony, Oregon Mozart Players, Yaquina Chamber Orchestra, Colors of the Baroque Chamber Orchestra, Sunnyside Symphony and Chamber Music Northwest. As a recitalist, she has performed in California, Oregon, Utah and Washington and internationally in Bolivia, Coast Rica, Italy, Mexico and Peru. Critics have called her work “exquisite,” “imaginative, polished and memorable.” She was Principal Flute of the Oregon Symphony from 1980-2005. Prior to that she was a member of the Miami Philharmonic and Principal Flute of the La Orquesta Sinfonica del Estado de Mexico. Ms. Weiss has solo and ensemble CDs with “Trillium Winds” and with the "Weiss Family Woodwinds", which has received high critical acclaim. In 2013, she performed with guitarist, John Mery on a three week concert tour of Costa Rica as part of their International Credomatic Music Festival. She has served as adjunct flute professor at several Portland, Oregon colleges and taught four summers for "Flute Alliance Flute Boot Camps" in Oregon. Dawn now teaches private flute lessons at her home in West Los Angeles.